Students are eligible for full tuition scholarships with the receipt of a reference letter. Students are responsible for a one-time $15 registration fee and for their own supplies, unless otherwise informed. The WSA will not evaluate student performance, but will keep attendance records. Student recipients are expected to attend classes consecutively during enrollment period. If a student cannot attend a class, the registrar (845-679-2388) must be notified prior to class. Students may make up one missed class. More than one missed class may result in discontinuation of scholarship.

For more information about our programs, please call Nina Doyle, Executive Director, at 845-679-2388. Applications may be mailed to the above address, sent digitally to registrar@woodstockschoolofart.org, or dropped off at the school office Tuesday-Saturday 9:00AM to 3:00PM. To arrange for a campus visit please call Nina Doyle or the WSA registrar. The WSA is a non-for-profit 501 (c)3 educational institution chartered under the laws of New York State.
