

Sketch and Paint Along with Robert
Acrylic Supply List
Instructor: Robert K. Carsten

Paint:

- Acrylic paint, brushes, palette (can be a paper palette pad), and a painting surface -- canvas or watercolor paper or canvasboard (your choice of surface). Size should be small 5" x 7" or 6" x 8" or 8" x 10"

If you do not have paints/brushes already, the following is a basic list:

- Paints can be inexpensive brands such as Liquitex Basics (available at Michaels, Hobby Lobby) or Daler Rowney (Walmarts) or they can be more expensive like Golden or Liquitex heavy body paints, which are thicker. Some artists combine inexpensive colors and a heavy body white so the paint can be thicker when mixed with white.
- You'll need at minimum: red, blue, yellow, white. green (optional), brown (optional), black (optional) Deluxe version: a warm red (Cadmium), a cool red (Alizarin Crimson), warm blue (Ultramarine), cool blue (Cerulean or Phthalo Blue), warm yellow (Cadmium medium), cool yellow (Cadmium Lemon), Titanium White

Brushes:

- Inexpensive synthetics (craft- type brushes) Short handle or long handle, Flat brushes are preferred. A 1" flat brush and a 1/2 inch flat brush is enough. Round (pointed) brushes are good as well.

Other Supplies:

- A photo that Robert will work from will be provided beforehand via email, or use your own image.
- A container for water (like a margarine container or anything like that)
- A plastic palette, plate or paper palette.
